Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway NH-275

Last-mile works on Mysuru side begins

Pending bridge works underway at Kalasthawadi (pic. left) and canal retaining wall works at Siddalingapura on Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway this morning.

Mysuru, Feb. 7 (RK&BCT)- The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) has taken up the last-mile works on the Mysuru side of the 10-lane Mysuru-Bengaluru Access-Controlled Expressway (NH-275). The works were pending even though the rest of the Highway and bypasses have been completed and have been opened for traffic.

Works are under brisk pace to meet the February-end deadline and at present, the focus of the works are Siddalingapura and Kalasthawadi. There is an old bridge near Kalasthawadi that is being demolished and will be rebuilt after altering the alignment. The earlier bridge was narrow and congested and when it rained heavily, water used to enter the nearby houses.

According to the officers from the NHAI, the water flowing under the bridge will be diverted so that there is no problem either to the houses or to the Highway even if it rains heavily. "We are using technology to build concrete blocks under the bridge to divert the water. The old bridge was not in a position to withstand the pressure and as such, we decided on the alignment change," officers said.

The concept of alignment change has been successfully implemented at many places on the Expressway and here too, the same technology is being used. The diverted water from the bridge will join a duct that is further down the Expressway, officials explained. "As the Expressway comprises six-lane and four service roads, we had to extend the bridge to accommodate the road structure. The work will be completed in another 20 to 25 days," officers added.

The second part of the work is to build a retaining wall to a canal at Siddalingapura. This particular canal carries water from the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam to the fields in and around Siddalingapura. "Here too, there is a need for a wider space to accommodate the road and the service roads. The retaining wall will prevent water from entering the Expressway," the officers explained.

Drunk man stabs, assaults friends

One stabbed five times with a dagger; two hit with empty beer bottles; accused absconding

Mysuru, Feb. 7 (RK&BCT)- Four friends got into an argument over a trivial matter at a bar and restaurant in the city last midnight after a birthday party and fought with each other.

The heated arguments resulted in one of the friends stabbing the other with a dagger five times and hitting the other two with empty beer bottles. The accused is absconding now and the Vijayanagar Police have launched a manhunt to nab him.

The incident occurred at 12.30 am at Bhoomi Putra Bar and Restaurant on the Hinkal-Ring Road Junction. Raviswamy, Santhosh, Chandru, Anu Shivappa, all aged between 30 and 35 years and residents of Hinkal and Vijayanagar, were celebrating the birthday party hosted by Pradeep. After cutting the birthday cake at around 12 am, Pradeep left the bar and asked his friends to continue partying.

The Police said that the friends got into the bar early and they were drunk even before the cake was cut. As Pradeep left the place, Raviswamy and Anu Shivappa got into an argument over a silly matter and Anu Shivappa, who claims to be the State President of Rashtriya Shivashakthi Senapade, hit Raviswamy's ear with an empty beer bottle. The bottle broke and Raviswamy was writhing in pain.

Moments later, Anu Shivappa left the place and headed towards his SUV. Meanwhile, Santhosh and Chandru followed Anu Shivappa and questioned him as to why he assaulted Raviswamy. According to the Police, an enraged Anu Shivappa came back to the bar table and attacked Santhosh with a dagger and picked up another empty beer bottle to assault Chandru.

While Santhosh was stabbed with the dagger five times, Chandru sustained injuries on his hand as he tried to avoid being hit with the bottle. Police said that the bar staff immediately called the Vijayanagar Police to report the incident. The injured have been admitted to a private hospital.

Police said that while Santhosh has been admitted to the ICU in a critical condition, Raviswamy and Chandru have been admitted as outpatients. A case has been registered at Vijayanagar Police Station.

The bar staff told the Police that they did not know the identities of the victims and the assaulter but told the Police that the place was under CCTV surveillance. The Police have identified the accused Anu Shivappa through the CCTV footage and efforts are on to arrest him.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

At times, God gives us a little glimpse of His powers and miraculously responds to our prayers, strengthening our faith in divine supremacy.

More than two decades ago, I was all set to leave for a Shiv puja with my children and my friend and her kids in tow. In my haste, I locked us all out with the house key left inside. Luckily, the car key was in my hand. After a few minutes of pondering, I decided we should go ahead with the puja and deal with the problem later. We attended the puja, where I prayed earnestly for my problem to be solved. From there, I drove to my mother's place to send a message on my husband's pager (it was in the pre-mobile days) about the mishap so that he would rush home to help.

I then decided to proceed homeward. Throughout this entire episode, I was hoping my husband would come with a locksmith from somewhere worried, no doubt, about how long it would take to sort all this out, but with a strange confidence and belief in some divine intervention. Surprisingly, on the way, we saw a locksmith on a bicycle with a big ring of keys dangling from it and yelling out his profession.

Within twenty minutes, he managed to open the door. While paying and thanking him, I casually asked him his name, and he answered, "Shivappa"! None of us ever saw a locksmith before or after this incident in our neighbourhood. I thought he was God-send, and this incident nothing short of a miracle.

Man finds teeth on his face

Dongguan: A Chinese man was shocked to find two human teeth embedded in his face days after accidentally colliding with another person during a basketball game.

The unnamed man was reportedly back in his home city of Dongguan, China's Guangdong Province, for the Lunar New Year, when he was invited to a basketball game by some childhood friends. At one point while trying to recover a rebound, the man collided with another player.

At first, he thought the man's chin had hit the left side of his head, right above the eye, but then he saw the other guy bleeding from his mouth and saying that he had lost two of his teeth. While he went to wash the blood pouring from his wound, everyone else was busy looking for the other player's teeth, but they were nowhere to be found.

VOICE OF THE READER

Adopt newer technology to check traffic offenders

Sir,

The recent news of intensified vehicle inspection in our city both by the Traffic and Civil Police is a good initiative, but when it comes to ground reality, it is an entirely different story.

It is common to see how the traffic offenders learn about vehicle inspection on the road ahead, with he or she being cautioned with a 'signal' or a shout-out from 'friendly' commuters coming from the opposite direction.

Alerted, the offenders without thinking twice take an alternate route to dodge the Police. This has become very childish now and almost everyone is aware about the same.

The ones who escape are usually people with grave violations and most visibly don't wear a helmet or have gross irregularities or offences to their name.

The people who get 'caught' most of the times are usually good mannered people who have everything in order sans some minor things which they are truly unaware (say Fitness Certificate, Emission Certificate etc.). This is the most unjust and unscientific method of bringing offences to a halt.

The Traffic Police should at least now rely on modern equipment and technology like CCTV cameras at all the major junctions, drones, Interceptor vehicles with real-time speed trackers, posting Policemen with HD cameras and body cameras etc., to monitor real traffic offenders who are a nuisance to public.

I can assure that despite such checking drives, most of the cases of overspeeding, triple and quadruple riding, helmetless riding, driving on the wrong side and other such gross offences go unnoticed and continues unabated.

Hence I request the City Traffic Police, who are now busy collecting traffic fines (at 50 per cent discount) to kindly make use of newer technologies so that the 'real' traffic violators are caught, instead of law-abiding motorists.

Industrialist, son abducted from Nanjangud, released on Mysuru-Bannur Road

Victims allege that five-member gang had kidnapped them

Nanjangud, Feb.7 (Chandru & BS)- In a broad daylight incident, an industrialist and his son were allegedly kidnapped from Adakanahalli Industrial Area in Nanjangud taluk on Monday (Feb.6) afternoon and were released after 10 hours on Mysuru-Bannur road in Mysuru, after collecting the ransom money from them.

Deepak, who runs Harsha Infotech factory and his son Harsha, residents of Mysuru, are those who were allegedly kidnapped by a five-member gang in their (Deepak) car.

The kidnappers who came in a car and a scooter near the factory at around 12.50 pm, abducted the father and son duo in their Maruti Alto car. They had demanded a ransom of Rs. 40 lakh, it is said.

Learning about the kidnap, the District Police erected barricades on the connecting roads and inspected the vehicles. They also informed Mysuru City Police and on the other hand, Chamarajanagar District Police too launched an inspection drive on the roads leading to Nanjangud. Besides, Police patrolling vehicles were also pressed into service.

At around 8.30 pm, a Police patrol team noticed a car, which was identified as that of Deepak, abandoned near Suttur Mutt at the foot of Chamundi Hill in Mysuru. They seized the vehicle and intensified the search operation in the vicinity.

Even as Police were searching for Deepak and his son Harsha, the two appeared at Nanjangud Rural Police Station at around 10.30 pm. They reportedly told the Police that they were released by the kidnappers after they paid the ransom money (but there is no clarity over the exact amount).

Deepak said that the kidnappers were speaking in Kannada and there were five kidnappers. But there is no clarity on the exact number of abductors again.

Nanjangud Rural Police have registered a case on the basis of complaint lodged by Deepak.

Nanjangud Sub-Division Dy.SP V. Govindaraju, Nanjangud Rural Circle Inspector Shivananja Shetty and other senior Police officers are collecting information from Deepak pertaining to the kidnapping incident and are investigating.

Rs. 10 lakh stolen from car near Vijayanagar Sub-Registrar's Office

Mysuru, Feb.7 (MK&BS)- A bag containing Rs. 10 lakh was reportedly stolen from a car parked in front of the Mysuru West Sub-Registrar's Office, near Vijayanagar Water Tank, in city on Monday evening. The incident has sent the contractor who lost the money into a tizzy, as it happened in a jiffy.

Contractor Govindegowda, a resident of Vijayanagar Second Stage in city had gone to the Sub-Registrar's Office after parking his car in front of the Office, leaving behind the cash bag in the car. He went to the Office at around 4.20 pm and returned at 4.40 pm, only to find the side window glass of the driver's seat broken. When he checked inside, he found the cloth bag containing the cash missing.

Govindegowda had borrowed the money from his friend and had gone to the Sub-Registrar's Office on some work. As he had kept the cash bag in the vehicle, he had parked the car on the main road, in front of the Sub-Registrar's Office, which is usually a busy stretch with people thronging the shops and heavy movement of vehicles. Still, the bag was stolen in no time, alleged Govindegowda.

Following a complaint, Vijayanagar Police, who have registered a case, have collected footages of CCTV camera installed in the vicinity and are going through the footages.

Leopard trapped on city outskirts

Mysuru, Feb. 7 (MTY&KS)- A leopard, which had created tension after it was spotted regularly since a few days at Shyadanahalli village and surrounding places on the outskirts of city, has been trapped in the cage placed by the Forest Department in the early hours of Monday.

It may be recalled that last year, a leopardess moving around along with two cubs in RBI campus was caught on CCTV camera. The Forest staff had conducted a combing operation and had placed a cage.

A few days later, miscreants had placed a carcass of poison laced dog near Belawadi. The leopardess and her two cubs had consumed the dog carcass and were found dead. It was suspected that it were the same leopardess and two cubs which were caught on CCTV camera at RBI campus and since then there were no incidents of leopard attacks on livestock in the surroundings.

But in recent days, there were complaints of a leopard moving around Shyadanahalli village, behind RBI campus and also attack on livestock, following which the Forest Department staff had placed a cage in a farm.

The leopard, which walked into the cage, got trapped on Monday morning. Range Forest Officer (RFO) K. Surendra and staff, have released the leopard into the forest.

With the intensified testing undertaken in the district, more number of cases are being reported and District Vector Borne Diseases Control Wing has intensified measures to tackle them.

District Vector Borne Diseases Control Officer Dr. S. Chidambara told Star of Mysore, "Though the prevalence of dengue cases are reported throughout the year, the cases are high during monsoon — from May to September. Earlier, the testing was less from December to March. Now, when 546 tests were conducted in January 2023, a total of 43 results have tested positive for dengue.

Hence, all steps are taken to control Dengue on the lines of Malaria. Accordingly, if anybody is down by fever they will be subjected to dengue test. The blood samples of those suffering from fever, will be collected, involving lower rung personnel including Health Inspectors, ASHA workers from Primary Health Centres, Community Health Centres, Taluk Hospitals, District Hospital and private hospitals. After collecting reports from private laboratories, those with dengue symptoms will be subjected to tests again.

The blood samples of those with symptoms are being collected from their home itself, explained District Vector Borne Diseases Control Officer Dr. S. Chidambara.

It has been planned to seek permission from State Wing of National Vector Borne Disease Control Programme to conduct 10,000 tests in the current year and distribute kits to the needy.

No other districts have conducted tests at this rate, as in Mysuru District. Already 5,700 tests have been conducted. However, the efforts are on to meet the target of 10,000 tests.

On the other hand, it has been proposed to supply 10 kits to Mysuru district. A total of 960 tests (96 test from each of 10 kits) can be conducted and the kits required to conduct 10,000 tests will be received gradually. Earlier, kits were either supplied less than demand or was delayed.

Now, the kits are being supplied as per the demand. After receiving the proposal for kits from all districts, it will be forwarded to National Institute of Virology (NIV), Pune in Maharashtra, from where the kits will be supplied.

The Elisa kits supplied from NIV are of better quality. Even though tests are conducted utilising the kits available in the market, re-tests will be conducted in some cases at Government Laboratories, the District Vector Borne Diseases Control Officer added.

Khelo India Youth Games-2023, Gwalior

Two city girls to showcase Kalarippayattu skills

Mysuru, Feb. 7 (BCT)- Two girls from Mysuru, 9-year-old V. Prakruthi and her sister 13-year-old V. Namrutha will represent Karnataka in the 'Kalarippayattu' category in the Khelo India Youth Games-2023 scheduled to be held from Feb. 8 to 10 at Gwalior in Madhya Pradesh.

Prakruthi

Namrutha

Prakruthi and Namrutha are studying at Police Public School in Mysuru. While Prakruthi is studying in fourth standard, Namrutha is in seventh standard. They will be the first children from Mysuru to represent Karnataka in the sport of 'Kalarippayattu' in the Khelo India Games.

In 2021, the Union Sports Ministry approved the inclusion of four indigenous games including 'Kalarippayattu' in the Khelo India Youth Games. The other games are 'Gatka', 'Thang-Ta' and 'Mallakhamba'.

'Kalarippayattu' was developed in Kerala and feats like 'chattom' (jumping), 'ottam' (running) and 'marichil' (somersault) are an integral part of the art. There are also lessons in using weapons like swords, daggers, spears, maces, and bows and arrows. The main aim is to completely coordinate the mind and body. The sport is a specialisation in indigenous medicinal practices and Kalaris are important centres of religious worship.

The girls are being trained and coached by G. Varun Yadav, Founder and Instructor of 'Kalari Sadhana Mysuru' at Udayagiri. They will be competing in two sub-junior events: 'Chuvadu' (shadow boxing forms) and 'Kettukari neduvadi payattu' (long-stick fighting).

Varun is also an associate instructor in contemporary self-defence systems like rapid assault tactics and 'Shifu Kanishka' combative. He also teaches other indigenous Indian combat systems like 'Silambam' and 'Kuthuvarisai'.

Daughters of Venkoji and Radha of Udayagiri, Prakruthi and Namrutha have been practising 'Kalarippayattu' for the last two-and-a-half years and have also won laurels in open 'Kalarippayattu' championships like 'Athar Bappu Gurukkal Smaraka Kalam Chavitt Championships.'

Last-mile works on Mysuru side begins: Expressway inauguration in March

Meanwhile, reports from Bengaluru say that the 117-km Expressway developed under the Union Government's flagship Bharatmala Pariyojana, will be officially inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the first week of March.

With most portions of the Expressway open for vehicular traffic, the opening of the Mandya and Srirangapatna bypasses recently marked the completion of the project. The NHAI expanded National Highway 275, including the Expressway, to a 10-lane road. The Expressway, from the NICE Road entrance in Bengaluru to Ring Road junction in Mysuru, is expected to cut travel time from an average of three hours to just 90 minutes.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha said it will be officially inaugurated in March first week by PM Modi. Most parts of the stretch are already open and vehicles, including KSRTC buses that are taking close to two hours between the two cities.

It will be a tolled road but the quantum of toll has not been fixed yet though the NHAI has announced earlier that the first phase of the toll collection will begin by Feb. 15 on the Bengaluru-Nidaghatta stretch.

'Gene Vruththantha,' 'Gene Therapy' books released

Mysuru, Feb. 7 (GA&BS)- Former Vice-Chancellor (VC) of University of Mysore (UoM) Prof. K.S. Rangappa released two books titled 'Gene Vruththantha' and 'Gene Therapy', authored by Science writer Sathanur Devaraj, in city recently.

The books were released at a programme organised by Spandana Samskrithika Parishat and Akhila Karnataka Lekhakara Mathu Prakashakara Sangha at The Institution of Engineers (IEI) auditorium on JLB Road in city.

The former VC said, "The books are written in a brief and clearly expressed manner and can be even read by a common man. There cannot be a world without science and if one becomes aware of science, they can find cure for many diseases. Though nobody can fully understand cancer, it can be treated through gene therapy. Attempts are made in the book to inform people about new subjects. Author Sathanur Devaraj is a hidden talent."

Writer and folk expert Dr. Ramegowda, President of Spandana Samskrithika Parishat Satish Javaregowda, JSS Medical College's Prof. Dr. Prasanna Santhe Kadur, lecturer of Maharani's Government PU College Dr. A.N. KuvempuVs Camera book launched

Mysuru, Feb. 7 (MTY&DM)- Regretting that the Sarvodaya and Sapta Sutras advocated by Poet laureate Kuvempu are yet to be implemented practically, senior writer Mudnakoodu Chinnaswamy said that Kuvempu was a great poet who lived life just as what he wrote.

He was speaking after releasing Wildlife Photographer duo Krupakar-Senani authored book 'Kuvempu Vs Camera' at a programme organised by Karnataka Shantaveri Janavedike at B.M. Shri Auditorium in Manasagangothri campus here recently.

Kuvempu never used his influence for personal or family gains. It is rarest of rare to see a writer or poet of the calibre of Kuvempu in respect of discipline, dedication and punctuality, he added.

Contending that the book is a special one in the Kannada literary field, Chinnaswamy said he was confused whether literature is meant only for reading and not for implementation or putting it in practice.

Stating that as he read the book, he found the authors Krupakar and Senani to be not just photographers but also artists, Chinnaswamy said that the authors have talked Kuvempu through their exclusive photographs. Asserting that this was the first book which he read at once, he said that the photographs in the book were simply magnificent.

One of the authors Senani said that the personality of a person should be wholly understood before writing a book on him/her. Pointing out that they wondered about bringing this book for the past 30 years, he said that finally they decided to write this book as reading the book gives one his own experience that will be different from others.

Earlier, multi-lingual actor Prakash Raj, who spoke after inaugurating the programme by clicking an old camera, said that Krupakar and Senani's work is more of the personality of a pioneer and philosopher, than a book. Stating that he had not read a book of this kind in the past, he said that the book does not say much, but has captured the journey of the great poet in photos.

Book's co-author Krupakar, Prof. B.N. Shriram and others were present.

'Hosa Belaku,' a book of poems released

Mysuru, Feb. 7 (GA&TRR)- N.V. Ramesh, Founder of Abhiruchi Balaga, released a book of poems titled 'Hosa Belaku' authored by senior poetess N. Shantakumari at a function organised by District Kannada Sahitya Parishat at Kannada Sahitya Parishat Bhavan in Vijayanagar here recently.

Speaking about the book, Ramesh lauded the efforts of Shantakumari in writing a book of poems. "This collection of poems, based on the incidents of her family and daily life is very special as every poem has come out of personal experience of the writer. The intensity of emotions expressed through words of the poetess really haunt the readers," opined Ramesh and said that the author's husband Prof. Nagaraj too has cooperated while writing the book.

Emphasising the need to encourage new and upcoming writers, Ramesh said that there are many things one can learn through the books written by these writers. Government should also identify and encourage new talents," he added.

District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Maddikere Gopal, who also spoke, said that stories and poems can alter the course of life and they can also give inspiration and strength. Shantakumari has written poems of such a quality. "Though the book looks small, its contents are of good quality," he added.

Kannada Sahitya Parishat District Vice-President N. Ananta, Joint Secretary Kempanna, Taluk President S. Manjunath, Hagalu Yogakshema Senior Citizens Centre President Prabhuswamy, Dr. Nagaraj, Puttaswamy, Chandrakala and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Rubric

Pronunciation: ROO-brik.
Meaning: Rubric is a somewhat formal word that is most often used to mean "an established rule, tradition, or custom" or "something under which a thing is classed." In the latter use it is a synonym of category.
Origin: Centuries ago, whenever manuscript writers inserted special instructions or explanations into a book, they put them in red ink to set them off from the black used in the main text. (They used the same practice to highlight saints' names and holy days in calendars, a practice which gave us the term red-letter day.) Ultimately, such special headings or comments came to be called rubrics, a term that traces back to ruber, the Latin word for "red." While the printing sense remains in use today, rubric has developed other meanings over the years, and is most often encountered in its extended sense referring to a class or category under which something is organised.
Example: "Contrary to all messages urging parents to do more for their kids, a growing number of research studies point to advantages of doing less. Much of that research comes under the rubric of autonomy-supportive parenting, which essentially means allowing and encouraging kids to take greater charge of their own lives & do more for themselves." — Peter Gray

THE ODD WORD

Randem

With three horses in single file.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Rule of Thumb

Meaning: The phrase 'Rule of Thumb' is used to describe a useful principle that has wide application, but that's not necessarily reliable in all situations.
Origin: The expression 'Rule of Thumb' has its origin in carpentry, when the thumb was used as a makeshift measuring device... In English, the phrase rule of thumb refers to an approximate method for doing something, based on practical experience rather than theory. This usage of the phrase can be traced back to the 17th century and has been associated with various trades where quantities were measured by comparison to the width or length of a thumb. A modern folk etymology holds that the phrase is derived from the maximum width of a stick allowed for wife-beating under English common law, but no such law ever existed. This belief may have originated in a rumored statement by 18th-century judge Sir Francis Buller that a man may beat his wife with a stick no wider than his thumb. The rumor produced numerous jokes and satirical cartoons at Buller's expense, but there is no record that he made such a statement.
Example: "As a rule of thumb, we meet on Fridays."

QUOTE BOX

The fingers must be educated, the thumb is born knowing. —Marc Chagall

MGP's monthly meeting on Feb.12

To discuss role of Mysureans in preserving heritage buildings

Mysuru, Feb. 7- The monthly meeting of Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP) will be held on Feb. 12 (Sunday) at 4 pm at MGP Office, Vivekananda Road, Yadavagiri.

During the monthly meeting of MGP in January 2023, there was a great deal of interest shown by the participants and time was not enough to discuss all the aspects of the heritage building conservation. Therefore, it was decided to continue the same topic during the February monthly meeting and have a discussion with two experts — Prof. N.S. Rangaraju of Heritage Committee and Prof. Shakeeb Ur Rehman.

"It is unfortunate that despite the critical importance of preserving Mysuru's rich heritage, it has failed to get the attention it deserves. Now to the long list of heritage sites in the critical list (Devaraja Market, Lansdowne, Maharani's Science College) which requires immediate intervention, the latest one is Devikere atop the Chamundi Hill. Can the stakeholders sit quiet waiting for the judiciary to decide?," asks a press release from MGP.

Mysureans with interest and concern for Mysuru's heritage may participate in the meeting.
